The Monroe County Arts Alliance is made up of community arts organizations throughout Monroe County, Illinois that are interested in uniting, networking and combining resources to promote the wide variety of arts activities that currently exist in the county, as well as to promote interest in creating new activities and events.

Organized in May of 2015, Arts Alliance members meet regularly to discuss ways to enhance and promote the arts to the general population of the county and to discuss ways to increase participation in existing programs. The Alliance also hopes to build attendance at all arts functions and to periodically work together to produce a large-scale concert or theatrical event combining all community arts organizations, just like the once-in-a-lifetime Bicentennial Concert that we sponsored in August 2016. The art forms represented by the Monroe County Arts Alliance include the performing arts such as music, theatre and dance, as well as the visual arts. Finally, the Arts Alliance hopes to be a resource for people who are looking for arts instruction either privately or in the public schools.

Sponsors of the Monroe County Arts Alliance website will be helping to foster more communication between arts organizations in Monroe County and more communication from those organizations to the public. We have a growing website subscriber list that receives weekly email updates with upcoming arts events in the county. By helping to keep this website running and viable, the sponsors will be helping to create a richer cultural environment for the residents of Monroe County and the surrounding area.

The benefits of becoming an annual sponsor on the website are listed in the sponsorship levels below. Thank you in advance for your support of the arts in Monroe County!
